 5. Be currently enrolled in, or accepted into, an accredited college, university, or certification program

Evaluation and Selection Process:

- Scholarships are awarded on an objective and non-discriminatory basis without regard to race, gender, creed, or national origin, using an established rating and review process. Eligibility alone does not guarantee receipt of a scholarship and not all applicants will necessarily receive an award.
- The Scholarship Committee will review each eligible application. The Scholarship Committee is assigned by the Glacier Hills Foundation and comprised of Glacier Hills' residents and Foundation board members.
- The Scholarship Committee will determine awards based on the information in the applications, essays, and immediate supervisors' recommendations.
- The Scholarship Committee will see no identifying information about applicants.

There are four components to the Glacier Hills Foundation Scholarship:

- Completed application
- Personal essay
- Proof of acceptance/enrollment in a college/university (detailed schedule) or information about the training/certification to be completed
- Immediate supervisor's recommendation

Glacier Hills Employee Scholarship Applications will be evaluated and weighted as follows:

- Financial Information – includes household income, family size, and family members attending college (50% of overall score)
- GPA (15% of overall score) – as applicable
- Immediate Supervisor’s Recommendation (10% of overall score)
- Personal Essay (25% of overall score)
- Structure – Format should follow specified rules and requirements listed (see Personal Essay Criteria)
- Clarity – Sentence structure should be clear and concise
- Grammar – Essay will be evaluated for proper grammatical usage
- Narrative – Essay will be evaluated to determine if the essay addressed the chosen topic(s)
